Autumn Retreat in Slovakia Tao of Breath 06-10th October 2021

During autumn, more needs to be done to develop the art of breathing.

The course focuses on deep practice in the world of Breath.

Breathing is an important activity in the body and it is possible to influence all processes in our body.

Breath is an amazing tool for expanding consciousness, detoxifying the body, gaining energy, and storing it.

With conscious breathing we can release stress, tension and also gain control over the heart!

The course participant will receive Taoist and scientific knowledge about breathing, knowledge of lungs and kidneys from the perspective of TCM (Traditional Chinese Medicine) and then learn to apply it through Taoist techniques:

Primordial Embryonic Breathing

When the normal breath stops, the right breath begins.

Application of the latest teaching by Master Chia

Balancing of CO2 and O2

Detoxifying body with hitting and with Breath

Nasal cleaning bath

Buddhist and Taoist breathing

Breathing through five gates

Breathing of the tiger and the dragon in Tiantien chikung

Packing breathing in the Iron Shirt

Breathing in the bones and breathing through the skin

Spacious breathing and breathing with aura

Pulsing and spiral breathing

The Retreat is designed for advanced practitioners of system Taoyoga and also beginner practitioners. The aim of the Retreat is also to increase the supply of red blood cells enriched with negative ions in a high mountain environment, thereby increasing the magnetic potential of the individual. With skin, bones and lungs detoxification increases their capacity and regenerates the alveoli. Also, the goal is to gradually reorient the breathing through the breathing technique of Tiantien - embryonic immortal respiration.
